The following highlights of this contract are provided for your convenience only:

- This contract creates a financial obligation to pay rent for the Spring 2026 semester and cannot be cancelled if student is enrolled in any classes at Florida State University, including any online/remote classes.
- Due to the communal nature of residence hall living, University Housing cannot guarantee that any housing space will be free of nuts, gluten, fragrances or other allergens, and cannot prevent cross contamination within rooms or common spaces.
- It is your responsibility to review your housing needs and financial resources before completing this contract. By submitting this contract, you are agreeing to abide by the terms of the contract.
- Changes in course delivery methods (including to fully online/remote classes) is not sufficient reason to cancel the contract.
- Prior to submitting this contract, please consider your own personal health status when deciding to live on-campus.
- This contract is binding regardless of room assignment (building and/or room type). Most students should plan on an assignment in a shared bedroom with at least one roommate, with a bathroom adjoining another shared bedroom.

The full terms and conditions of the contract can be found on our website. These need to be read in their entirety before signing.

By signing, I indicate that I have read, understand, and accept the Fall 2025/Spring 2026 Housing Contract Terms and Conditions and agree to abide by all policies and regulations outlined in the Student Conduct Code and Guide to Residence Living. I further understand that I am entering into a binding contract for University Housing for the Spring 2026 semester.
